To our Valued Customers:

Effective immediately, Legacy Electronics, Inc has completed an asset sale with JCR, LLC which includes the exclusive right to market and sell the complete Legacy Electronics product portfolio, designs and product line.

Our customers will be able to continue ordering the same qualified products through JCR, LLC with the same quality and product support they have enjoyed previously without interruption to your current supply and manufacturing processes.

In the weeks ahead, you will receive a call and follow up email with additional contact information.

We value your support and appreciate your business.

Sincerely,

Legacy Electronics, Inc.
